

Statement of Problem: What is needed to implement the Many Men, Many Voices (3MV) HIV & STD prevention intervention program? How does this intervention work?

Planned Work*		Intended Results
Resources/Inputs →	Activities →	Outputs →	Immediate, Intermediate & Long-term Outcomes
Resources needed to operate your program and conduct activities	To address problem or asset, activities conducted	As a result of activities conducted, evidence of service delivery, examples:	As a result of outputs (service delivery), expected changes in target population in specified period(s) of time
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Knowledge of and skills related to the intervention, group facilitation, program planning, prevention theory & science, sexually transmitted infections, and the target population, etc. Existing data Funding Staff Trainings Intervention Box with materials like the intervention manual, the implementation planning tool, posters and flyers for recruitment, budget worksheet. Technical assistance (planning, tailoring/adaptation, evaluation) Space to run group sessions Agency commitment Community partners like the population at risk and population in need of intervention services, support from agency, health department and community leaders. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Schedule 3MV group intervention consisting of 6 - 7 sessions See core elements and tasks and activities listed on the agency planning tool for conducting the 3MV intervention Educate clients about risks and sensitize clients to risk Develop risk reduction strategies in group Coach participants regarding capacity for change Train participants in partner selection, communication and negotiation Provide support and relapse prevention 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Six or seven (3) hour group sessions conducted STD and HIV knowledge increased, risk information conveyed, perception of risk enhanced, options for risk reduction selected, risk reduction skills built. Written Implementation plan, tailored to target population, including measureable program objectives Written process/procedures to integrate 3MV into flow of agency services and programs Written 3MV recruitment process Evaluation plan including tools, evaluation data, data analyses, and summary reports with interpretation Documentation of regular program monitoring and program improvement in accordance with monitoring plan Example program monitoring (program objectives met) and process evaluation indicators, examples : % of planned # of clients recruited/approached for 3MV in [timeframe] % of planned # 3MV sessions held in [timeframe] % of planned # of participants in each 3MV sessions in [timeframe] % of planned # of participants in [timeframe] % of planned # of 3MV participants who satisfy target population characteristics [risk group or demographics] in [timeframe] 	Immediate Outcomes (e.g., immediately after intervention, within 1-2 weeks of intervention) Knowledge, skills and attitudes, examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increase in # participants' about transmission of HIV and STDs by % in [timeframe] Increase in # participants' knowledge about risk reduction for HIV and STDs by % in [timeframe] Increase % participants able to realistically assess their personal risk for HIV/STDs in [timeframe] Increase % of participants' intention to obtain condoms in [timeframe] Increase % of participants' intention to use condoms regularly in [timeframe] [Insert site or program specific outcomes] Intermediate Outcomes (e.g., 1, 3, or 6 months after intervention) Behavior impacted, examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Decrease in % of participants' repeat STD infections in [timeframe] Increase in % of participants' requesting/ obtaining HIV/STD testing services in [timeframe] (optional) [Insert site or program specific outcomes] Long-term Outcomes (e.g., 6, 9, or 12 months after intervention) Long term changes in knowledge, skills and behaviors, examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Increase % of participants' regular use condoms in [timeframe] Decrease in % of participants' repeat STD infections in [timeframe] Increase in % of participants' requesting/ obtaining HIV/STD testing services in [timeframe] (optional) [Insert site or program specific impact]